

briefs

Frederick K. Brewington, Esq. has been selected to the list of New York Metro Super Lawyers for 2015. He was recognized in the practice areas of Civil Rights, Criminal Defense and Employment Litigation: Plaintiff. No more than five percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by Super Lawyers. This is the third year in a row that Mr. Brewington has been named to this exclusive list. He was a Networking[®] magazine David honoree in 2009.

While he maintains a general practice, Mr. Brewington concentrates his practice in the area of civil rights litigation, with a focus on affordable housing, community revitalization efforts, employment, the environment and voting rights and fair representation. His practice also includes criminal defense and personal injury. ■