

Nassau County Rolling Out Body Cameras For Police Officers

May 27, 2021

Nassau County is about to invest $5 million in body cameras for its police force. It is among the last large law enforcement agencies in the country to do so, and many Long Islanders say it's long overdue; CBS2's Jennifer McLogan reports.